Dear Father,

This is only going to be a line to tell you we expect to leave here tomorrow morning & to arrive in Philadelphia, home, on Wednesday evening -

Hudson left this morning for Fall River about the collection - The man Harry wanted him to see here has gone to Europe - We are enjoying our stay in this quaint & very American little place so much & our cousins are so kind to us & I love them all - Baby & I are very well Hudson alas! not as I want to see him - We will be home soon I want to see you so so much dear Father, & play with my house too. Love to Harry & Helen & lots for yourself from your loving daughter, Bertha

We will take supper with you on Wednesday if you will have us -

I think Hudsons telegram means they will be here Thursday. So do not hurry home. He is packing Collection to day & in Newport tomorrow. Depew owes 110. taking all of that invoice. All well. Harry.

I have been thinking of you so much lately + realizing how fond I was of you that this evening I thought I would sit down and have a little chat with you!

My dear Father

I have been thinking doing something to white inside, it will could do in that back hall of ours & I do hate darkness so

This place is very beautiful I wish you were here to enjoy it with us, the roads are bad walking however so you wouldn't like that, but the views are splendid & the rich blue colour of the sea & sky is so beautiful Lemons & oranges are growing everywhere and there are lots of flowers in bloom in the gardens. The hotel garden has roses & violets & pansies in profusion also palms & lemon trees; it is hard to believe in winter here when it is fine but when it rains as it did last week for two or three days we nearly freeze or else sit huddled over a little open fire - America's the place for comfort!

I shall be delighted when the time comes to turn my face homewards but I feel it would be foolish not to make the most of our being over here & see the Paris Exposition & also something of Italy for who knows when we will ever get a chance again to be here -

Dear Father I love you very much I know it at ~~Dear~~ home but feel it more than ever now I am away from you & I want you to know it.

Both Hudsons join me in love to you all. Believe me,

Always your loving daughter
